29/08/2003: -

Heard Shri M.L. Pastore counsel for the petitioner.

By this writ petition filed under Articles 226/227 of the Constitution of India the petitioner has challenged the arbitrary and discriminatory action of the respondents in denying the legitimate claim for compassionate appointment in the State Bank of India.

Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the father of the petitioner namely Ghanshyam Rajak was working as Deputy Head Cashier in the State Bank of India, Kawardha. He died in harness on 23/06/2000 and the petitioner being the son of the deceased had applied for compassionate appointment. Counsel submits that the petitioner has made several representations, but the respondents are neither paying any heed to his application nor had communicated that what action has been taken to his application.

Having heard learned counsel appearing for the petitioner and having regard to the facts and circumstances of the case, the respondents are directed to consider the application of the petitioner and if as per the circulars or any policy the petitioner is entitled for compassionate appointment then the respondents authorities shall consider the case of the petitioner and pass appropriate order on his application. & inform the petitioner about the Action taken by them.
